No. 3

Introduced by Assembly Member V. Manuel Perez (Coauthors: Assembly Members Carter, Fuentes, Furutani, Galgiani, Monning, Portantino, and Salas)

December 1, 2008

An act to amend Sections 14202, 14203, 14204, 14205, 14221, and 14230 of, and to add Section 14013.5 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to workforce development.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 3, as amended, V. Manuel Perez. Workforce development: Renewable Energy Workforce Readiness Initiative: local workforce investment boards.

(1) Existing law, the California Workforce Investment Act, establishes the California Workforce Investment Board (CWIB), which is the body responsible for assisting the Governor in the development, oversight, and continuous improvement of California's workforce investment system, and prescribes the functions and duties of the board with regard to the implementation and administration of workforce training and development programs. Existing law establishes the Green Collar Jobs

Council (GCJC) as a special committee in the CWIB, comprised of specified members, to assist in providing workforce development and job training relating to green collar jobs.

This bill would require the CWIB, by July 1, 2010, in consultation with the Green Collar Jobs Council (GCJC), to establish a Renewable Energy Workforce Readiness Initiative to ensure green collar career placement and advancement opportunities within California's renewable energy generation, manufacturing, construction, installation, maintenance, and operation sectors that is targeted towards specified populations. The bill would require that the initiative provide guidance to local workforce investment boards on how to establish comprehensive green collar job assessment, training, and placement programs that reflect the local and regional economies, as prescribed. The bill would require the CWIB, in developing the initiative, to assist the local workforce investment boards in collecting and analyzing specified labor market data, in order to assess accurate local or regional industry cluster workforce development and training needs. The CWIB would be required to submit to the Legislature, by January 1, 2012, a report on the implementation of the initiative. The bill would require that the board only implement the initiative established pursuant to provisions of the bill if the Director of Finance determines that there are sufficient ~~federal~~ funds made available to the state for expenditure for the initiative pursuant to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, the federal Workforce Investment Act of 1998, or other federal law, or from other non-General Fund sources, and would require that the initiative terminate at such time that the director determines that there are no longer sufficient ~~federal~~ funds available for the initiative.

(2) Existing law requires the local chief elected officials in a local workforce development to form, pursuant to specified guidelines established by the Governor and the board, a local workforce investment board, and prescribes the duties of the board with regard to the development and implementation of local workforce investment plans, as specified.

This bill would revise the membership of the local workforce investment board and revise local workforce investment plan requirements.

Because the bill imposes new duties on local government workforce investment boards, it would impose a state-mandated local program.

(3) This bill would incorporate additional changes in Section 14230 of the Unemployment Insurance Code made by SB 410 that would become operative if both bills are enacted and this bill becomes effective after SB 410.

~~The~~

(4) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the
2 following:

3 (1) California is fortunate to have some of the finest solar, wind,
4 and geothermal resources in the world, giving California the
5 opportunity to lead the United States in the development of
6 renewable energy technologies and the creation of green collar
7 jobs.

8 (2) A 2006 analysis performed by the Renewable Energy Policy
9 Project looked at the employment gains throughout the United
10 States and found that, of all the 50 states, California has the greatest
11 potential to generate new renewable energy manufacturing activity.

12 (3) The Governor issued Executive Order S-14-08, which
13 increased the state's renewable portfolio standard to 33 percent
14 by 2020, and positioned California's economy, technology centers,
15 financial institutions, businesses, workers, and consumers to benefit
16 from the state's renewable energy efforts.

17 (4) California's investment in the production of renewable
18 energy and associated infrastructure could be targeted to strengthen
19 sectors and regions of the state economy suffering from high
20 unemployment rates and poverty.

21 (5) Educational institutions, in collaboration with labor and 22 community-based organizations, play a significant role in the 23 progress of renewable energy curriculum and career job placement
24 within emerging renewable energy industries.

(6) California's Imperial and Riverside Counties are recognized as having some of the highest potential for renewable energy development in California and also some of the highest unemployment rates in the state.

(7) Educational institutions in the Imperial, Riverside, and San Bernardino Counties, such as Imperial Valley College, College of the Desert, Palo Verde Community College, University of California at Riverside, and California State San Bernardino are seeking to establish collaborations with local labor and renewable energy organizations but lack infrastructure, technical assistance, and resources.

(8) The federal Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA) (29 U.S.C. Sec. 2801 et seq.) makes funding available to states that offer training and workforce development services through state and local workforce investment boards, based on a set formula that includes specified economic and demographic data in order to provide appropriate programming in local workforce areas.

(9) The California Workforce Investment Board (CWIB) has established a special committee known as the Green Collar Jobs Council (GCJC) pursuant to Section 15002 of the Unemployment Insurance Code. The GCJC is comprised of appropriate representatives from the existing CWIB membership, and other appropriate members who serve as consultants to the GCJC in the development and implementation of California's green economic industry.

(10) The 2009–10 estimated WIA allocation to local workforce investment boards is approximately $363 million, while California will receive about $63 million in discretionary funding.

(11) California is expected to receive approximately $787 million in funds appropriated under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA) (Public Law 111-5) for use for purposes related to assisting unemployed workers and struggling families. California is also expected to receive $480 million in supplemental WIA funding to be used for (A) youth formula grants; (B) dislocated worker programs; and (C) adult services grants. Of the $480 million in WIA funding targeted for California, the CWIB is expected to receive approximately $70 million to carry out supplemental programs related to the ARRA-funded programs.

(12) California's ARRA funding for adult services is expected to total approximately $80,117,954. These funds are intended to be used to provide grants to states for adult employment and training activities, including supportive services and needs-related payments to support the employment and training needs of priority populations, including recipients of public assistance and other low-income individuals.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to establish the "California Renewable Energy Workforce Readiness Initiative" in order for the California Workforce Investment Board (CWIB) to prepare California's youth, military veterans, and adult workers for the economy of the future.

SEC. 2. Section 14013.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

14013.5. (a) In furtherance of the requirements of this division, no later than July 1, 2010, the board, in consultation with the Green Collar Jobs Council (GCJC) and other appropriate state agencies, shall establish a Renewable Energy Workforce Readiness Initiative to ensure green collar career placement and advancement opportunities within California's renewable energy generation manufacturing, construction, installation, maintenance, and operation sectors. The initiative shall provide guidance to the local workforce investment boards on how to establish comprehensive green collar job assessment, training, and placement programs that reflect the local and regional economies. The purpose of the guidance is to assist local communities to develop strategies to best utilize moneys provided under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA) (Public Law 111-5), the federal Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA) (29 U.S.C. Sec. 2801 et seq.), federal grants, and other federal laws in designing and implementing green collar job development programs that are reflective of local and regional economies and that lead to stable career opportunities.
